

VERANSTALTUNGEN

WISSENSCHAFTLICHE VERANSTALTUNGEN

非正規雇用 [Atypische Arbeitsverhältnisse]

Deutsch-japanischer Workshop

University of Tsukuba, 03.03.2019

Organisation: DIJ und University of Tsukuba

Workshop Diversity Research Institute, zu Diversity Management: A German Japanese Comparison

Universität Göttingen, 14. – 15.03.2019

Organisation: Universität Göttingen, DIJ

<http://www.uni-goettingen.de/en/604374.html>

French-German Workshop in Social Sciences and Humanities

Launch event on the occasion of the DIJ-IFRJ/MFJ Memorandum of Understanding about their future collaboration

Maison franco-japonaise, Tokyo, 30.05.2019

Organisation: DIJ und Institut français de recherche sur le Japon à la Maison franco-japonaise

Labor Market Policy and Political Participation in France, Germany and Japan

Japanese-German Center Berlin (JDZB), Berlin, 19.06.2019

Organisation: JDZB, DIJ, L'École des hautes études en sciences sociales (EHESS)

Studying Japan: The Impact of Transnationalization and Technological Innovation on Methods, Fieldwork and Research Ethics

Freie Universität Berlin, 23. - 24.07.2019

Mit Unterstützung der DFG, FU Berlin, Ernst Reuter Gesellschaft

Organisation: Nora Kottmann, DIJ und Cornelia Reiher, Freie Universität Berlin

(<https://www.dijtokyo.org/de/event/studying-japan-the-impact-of-transnationalization-and-technological-innovation-on-methods-fieldwork-and-research-ethics/>)

Contemporary Japanese Theatre Workshop

DIJ, 27.07.2019

Organisation: Barbara Geilhorn, DIJ

(<https://www.dijtokyo.org/event/contemporary-japanese-theatre-workshop/>)

The Politics of Migration in Japan

DIJ, 17.09.2019

Organisation: Axel Klein, Universität Duisburg-Essen, Daniel Kremers, DIJ

(<https://www.dijtokyo.org/de/event/the-politics-of-migration-in-japan/>)

The Digital Transformation - Implications for the Social Sciences and the Humanities

DIJ, 24. – 25.09.2019

Organisation: DIJ, DWIH und NIRA

(<https://www.dijtokyo.org/event/the-digital-transformation-implications-for-the-social-sciences-and-the-humanities/>)

Citizen Science in the Digital Age – Engaging Civil Society in Social Science and Humanities Research

OAG-Haus, Tokyo, 26.09.2019

Mit Unterstützung des DWIH und NIRA
(<https://www.dijtokyo.org/de/event/citizen-science-in-the-digital-age-engaging-civil-society-in-social-science-and-humanities-research/>)

Leadership in a Digital World: Innovative – Human – Collaborative

Workshop mit Sabine Remdisch und Christian Otto, Leuphana Universität, Lüneburg, und LeadershipGarage@stanford.edu

DIJ, 07.11.2019

Organisation: DFG, DWIH, DIJ

(<https://www.dijtokyo.org/event/leadership-in-a-digital-world-%e2%80%a8innovative-human-collaborative/>)

DIJ Panel: Tokyo Through the Lense of the 2020 Olympics

VSJF Jahrestagung 2019 Metropolitan Japan in Historical and Contemporary Perspective

Ruhr Universität Bochum, 08. – 10.11.2019

Mobilities and the Geographicity of Law. Lessons for Japan

DIJ and MFJ Lecture mit Mathis Stock, University of Lausanne

DIJ, 13.11.2019

(<https://www.dijtokyo.org/event/mobilities-and-the-geographicity-of-law/>)

The Future of Society – German and Japanese Perspectives

DIJ Roundtable mit Udo Di Fabio, Universität Bonn

DIJ 28.11.2019

(<https://www.dijtokyo.org/event/the-future-of-society-german-and-japanese-perspectives/>)

Comparisons in the Social Sciences and Humanities – Opportunities and Risks

Gemeinsamer Workshop des DIJ und der MWS Forschungsgruppe an der
National University of Singapore
DIJ, 02. – 03.12.2019

Mapping social norms and values required for ET: Approaches to social stakeholder assessment

Workshop mit Susanne Brucksch, DIJ; Patrick Grüneberg, Kanazawa
University; Kojiro Honda, Kanazawa Medical University; Cosima Wagner, Freie Universität Berlin; und Tomoko Wakui, Tokyo Metropolitan Institute of Gerontology.

Online: 14.12.2019

DIJ FORUM

Die Vorträge sind als Audio-Podcast auf unserer Homepage eingestellt, sofern die Redner dazu ihr Einverständnis gaben.

Regulating for a Better Work-life Balance: German and Japanese Experiences

Hartmut Seifert, WSI Düsseldorf

Katsutoshi Kezuka, Chuo University (04.03.2019)

Protecting Children in Family Separation

Yuko Nishitani, Kyoto University

Noriko Odagiri, Tokyo International University (18.04.2019)

Androids and Virtual Reality – Simulations of the Human in Japanese Theatre

Mari Boyd, Sophia University, Tokyo

M. Cody Poulton, University of Victoria, Canada (23.05.2019)

The Mountains Belong to Everybody? Conflicts about Recreational Forest use in Austria and Japan

Yuichiro Hirano, Forestry and Forest Products Research Institute, Tsukuba

Wolfram Manzenreiter, University of Vienna (01.08.2019)

Renewable Energy in Germany and Japan - Prospects for the Citizen Energy Movement

Carsten Herbes, Nürtingen-Geislingen University (HfWU), Germany

Jörg Raupach-Sumiya, Ritsumeikan University, Osaka

Eiji Oishi, Minna Denryoku, Tokyo (19.09.2019)

Universities in the Digital Age

Bernd Huber, President of Ludwig-Maximilians-Universität München

Miho Funamori, Strategy Manager at the Research Center for Open Science and Data Platform at National Institute of Informatics (04.10.2019)

A New Era of Immigration? Japan's Guest Worker Programs in Comparative Perspective

Naoto Higuchi, Tokushima University

Kristin Surak, SOAS University of London (31.10.2019)

User-driven Healthcare Innovation in Japan

Sarah Cosentino, Waseda University,

Nobu Ishiguro, Osaka University (12.12.2019)

STUDY GROUPS

Die DIJ Study Groups sind informelle Foren für junge Wissenschaftler. In der Regel einmal monatlich präsentiert ein Referent ein aktuelles Forschungsprojekt, das anschließend diskutiert wird.

DIJ History and Humanities Study Group

Organisation: Isaac Gagné, Barbara Geilhorn, Torsten Weber

Inscribing Edible Otherness: Intersections of Food, Gender, and Ethnicity in Contemporary Zainichi Poetry

Kristina IWATA-WEICKGENANNT, Nagoya University (30.01.2019)

Writing (in) Iwate: Exploring a Local Literary Scene and its Fiction

Tamara KAMERER, University of Vienna (28.02.2019)

Between Contributor and Competitor: Recent Trends in how the Chinese Government views Japan

Ming SHI, Berlin (27.06.2019)

Wielding Toxic Discourse: Insanity in the Nuclear Narratives of Chernobyl and Fukushima

Rachel DINITTO, University of Oregon (12.09.2019)

Environmental Local Scales: Women's Writing in Northern Tōhoku, Present to Postwar

Eric SIERCKS, University of California, Los Angeles (24.10.2019)

Image(-Text) correlations in the works of Natsume Sōseki

Kevin SCHUMACHER, LMU Munich / DIJ (21.11.2019)

DIJ Social Sciences Study Group

Organisation: Susanne Brucksch, Sonja Ganseforth, Steffen Heinrich, Hanno Jentzsch, Nora Kottmann, Daniel Kremers

Autonomy, Belonging and Long-Distance Relationships in Europe and Japan
Markus KLINGEL, Bremen International Graduate School of Social Sciences
(13.03.2019)

Merits and Challenges of Deliberative Democracy in Japan
Momoyo HÜSTEBECK, Universität Duisburg-Essen (22.05.2019)

Technologies of Presence: Modeling Emotion in Robots with Heart
Daniel WHITE, Freie Universität Berlin
Hirofumi Katsuno, Doshisha University (03.06.2019)

Farmers, Local Agency, and the Development of Peri-Urban Spaces
Aaron KINGSBURY, PhD, Maine Maritime Academy (05.06.2019)

Local Responses to the Revision of the Seed Law: The Seed Registration System, GMOs and Rice
Nicole L. FREINER, Bryant University (14.06.2019)

Negotiating Difference: Educational Experiences of Deaf and Hard-of-hearing Students in Mainstream Japanese Schools
Jennifer M. McGUIRE, Doshisha University (10.07.2019)

Shrinking but Happy? Investigating the Interplay of Social and Individual-Level Predictors of Well-Being in Rural Japanese Communities
Dionyssios ASKITIS, DIJ (18.09.2019)

Autism in the Workplace, How the Diagnosis of a Developmental Disorder Affects Employment Situations in Japan
Charlotte SCHÄFER, DIJ (29.10.2019)

Political Communication in the Age of New Media – Investigating the Reception of Right-Wing Populist Communication Strategies in the Japanese Blog Scene
Katharina DALKO, DIJ (14.11.2019)

Business & Economics Study Group

Organisation: Markus Heckel

What Happens Abroad Stays Abroad? Expatriates' Psychological Contracts
Tassilo SCHUSTER, Ludwig-Maximilians-Universität München (06.02.2019)

How Can We Explain the Lag of Japan's Sharing Economy?
Junxi YAO, University of Sheffield (14.05.2019)

Making the Most of Scarcity? The Role of Natural Assets in Pre-WWII
Japanese Economic Development
Jean-Pascal BASSINO, ENS Lyon; CNRS research fellow at the French
Research Institute on Japan at Maison franco-japonaise (13.06.2019)

SONSTIGE VERANSTALTUNGEN

Gemeinsame Bücherausstellung: Nō und Kyōgen

DIJ Bibliothek, 01.03. – 29.03.2019

The International House of Japan Library,
Bibliothèque de la Maison franco-japonaise,

Die von den Bibliotheken zusammengestellte deutsche, englische und französische Literatur befasste sich mit der Frage, wie die klassische japanische Bühnenkunst im Ausland gesehen wird und welche Forschung es dazu gibt.

Gemeinsame Bücherausstellung: 120. Geburtstag von Yasunari Kawabata

DIJ Bibliothek, 01.10. – 31.10.2019

Zu diesen Veranstaltungen stellten die International House of Japan Library, die Bibliothèque de la Maison franco-japonaise und die Bibliothek des Deutschen Instituts für Japanstudien Werke von und über Kawabata in englischer, deutscher und französischer Sprache aus.